Quesada Aqua Park is highly recommended, a fantastic day out for all the family. Within easy access of Quesada Town just a couple of minutes by car follow the signs. The Aqua park itself is extremely well run with an abundance of lifeguards and lots of friendly staff to ensure you get the best out of your day. They have a large pool area immediately on your left as you go into the park with sun beds and umbrellas'. If you're looking to use this area I'd recommend you get there early as it tends to fill quickly. However there's lots of space and grassy areas to put down your towels and make camp. Weather you take a picnic or use the canteen and restaurant facilities you are guarantee to have a great day.

Remember: take plenty of sunscreen and hats!
